

Ilene & Gary Modica

Living our dream in Italy for one year

We hope to inspire others to travel and create their own journey.

ABOUT US

Ilene and Gary, live in Lucca, Italy, and have declared themselves “Italian snowbirds,” as they have been known to fly back to Arizona for the winter. They've spent a great deal of time in Italy since 2010 and have visited, to date, a total of 92 cities and towns. Writing this book together, as their journey unfolded in 2019, was a new adventure for them.

They have an award-winning blog (ouritalianjourney.com) where they share information about Italy. They personally help subscribers with travel information and dual citizenship by answering countless emails and even personal telephone calls.

ABOUT THE BOOK

Can you imagine living in Italy for one full year? This was the dream. That was the promise. After a rollercoaster ride to obtain Italian citizenship, they achieved their goal and packed a bag, leaving family and friends to live in Italy in 2019.

Writing as they traveled through various towns, where they stayed and explored, they share their trials and tribulations, as well as the laughter in this lighthearted book. They describe artful depictions of Italy's seducing charm, their experiences in daily life, Italy's cultural differences, and the well-known Italian zest for living.
